Meet Dr. King

This awe-inspiring presentation has been performed for the Dusable Museum of African-American History in Chicago the past three years running on Martinmas Day to a standing-room only audience. This one-man show tells about the life of Dr. King from the time he entered this world until he was tragically taken from it.

Mr. Gentry tells Dr. King's story in the first person. Mr. Gentry's vocal impression of Dr. King captures his personal side while recreating the emotions experienced during some of his most memorable moments and speeches for his audience's enjoyment.

You will not only hear about the life of Dr. King, but you will also learn about the other critical characters who impacted this country and this man's life during the Civil Rights struggle, such as Coretta King, Benjamin Mayes, Mahatma Ghandi, Rosa Parks, Medgar Evers, and many more. Don't miss this opportunity to hear Dr. Respect's portrayal of one of the greatest, inspirational leaders of our time.

Who Should Attend

If you are an individual interested in empowering those within your circle of influence with the life, experiences and messages of the late Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., then you simply must book Mr. Gentry today.

In the final highlight of this performance, Mr. Gentry brings present day application to the messages of the past. Of course, this production is in high demand during the month of February but remember, Dr. King's messages are timely for any month of the year!

Mr. Gentry has performed for Dusable Museum, on small stages, in churches, at libraries, schools, colleges & universities, community centers and political events.

There is something for everyone—young, old, black, white and everyone in between are touched by this awesome tribute to a great man.
